On Wednesday, April 3d, Her Britannie Majesty's Commissioner and Consul-General, James Hay Wodehouse, Esq., had an audience of His Majesty for the purpose of presenting Capt, Ralph P. Cator, commanding H. B. M.'s Corvette Scout, and the officers of the ship accompanying him. The audience took place at Iolani Palace at twelve o'clock. His Majesty was attended by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, the Attorney-General, and the Chamberlain.

Lieut. W. R. Clutterbuck, Rev. C. T. Autridge, Lieut. E. S. Clapp, Paymaster E. H. Clymer, and Mr. E. J. J. Sandiford, Captain's Clerk, accompanied Capt, Cator on the occasion, and were presented.

On Thursday, the 4th inst., H. R. I. M.'s Vice-Consul, Johann Carl Pfluger, Esq., had an audience of His Majesty for the purpose of presenting Capt. Gregorash, commanding H. R. I. Zarine and Makaroff, Pailots Merzloff and Baumazoff, Midshipmen Skanlinskoy and Zatcharenskoy. On this occassion His Majesty was attended by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, the Minister of Finance, and the Chamberlain.

On Thursday, the 4th inst., the town was considerably enlivened by repeated salvoes of artillery, so that all the unemployed people around the corners,-we among the rest-set to work counting the guns and speculating what it was all about. To make our information reliable, we went to headquarters, and found that H. B. M.'s Commissioner and Consul-General, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, His Excellency the Minister-Resident of the United States, M. Ballien, Commissioner and Consul for France, and His Majesty's Chamberlain, Colonel Prendergast, had visited Capt. Cator, on board the Scout, where they had been very handsomely entertained, and saluted on their departure.

On Friday, the 5th, His Majesty's Ministers returned Capt. Gregorash's calls, remaining on board of the Tungus for an
